THE GARDEN

Tucked behind brick at the corner of Bowery & East 5th Street, the Garden is our quiet and calm oasis in the heart of the East Village. An al fresco destination in warmer months, it's the perfect spot to sip a cocktail or a coffee, enjoy a bite to eat, or challenge your friends to a game of pétanque amid waving greenery. The garden is open year round, playing host to lobster bakes in summer and a full-fledged wonderland in winter.

A decorative header featuring stylized illustrations of yellow and pink flowers on the left, a blue bird on the right, and the word "Narcissa" written in a large, elegant cursive script in the center.

Narcissa

Narcissa, André Balazs and Michelin-starred chef John Fraser's restaurant nestled next to The Standard, East Village marries the clean flavors and impeccably sourced ingredients of California cuisine with new techniques of roasting, rotisserie, and slow cooking. Featuring seasonal and organic produce from André Balazs' Hudson Valley farm, the healthy, multi-layered menu offers simplicity and sophistication. The intimate restaurant features two dining rooms, one featuring a large open kitchen and chef counter, the other overlooking a charming private garden for al fresco dining in warmer months.

PRIVATE DINING ROOM

Narcissa's private dining room accommodates up to 12 seated guests for a private lunch, dinner, or meeting. Located adjacent to the main dining room of the restaurant, the space overlooks our serene garden and comes complete with its own private bar. A high-definition LED television screen for presentations is available upon request.

THE KITCHEN ROOM

With tall ceilings and enormous windows that face Cooper Square, Narcissa's kitchen room seats up to 60 guests for a private or semi-private dinner. The space features an open kitchen and is ideal for hosting just about any gathering.
